

15 Questions in 60 Seconds with Emma Childs

Massage Therapist at Durham House

1. What would you name the autobiography of your life?
“Challenge Accepted”

2. If you could learn to do anything, what would it be?
To draw or paint.

3. If you won the lottery, what is the first thing you would do?
Write some cheques for friends and family.

4. If you have 30 minutes of free time, what do you like to do?
Listen to audio books or learn something new.

5. If you could be any fictional character, who would you choose?
Dr Manhattan.

6. What is something you learned in the last week?
Indian head massage.

7. What's your favourite indoor / outdoor activity?
Catching up with my partner as he works nights - we are often like ships that pass in the night!

8. What chore do you absolutely hate doing?
Paying bills!

9. If you could meet anyone, living or dead, who would you meet?
My grandad. I wish I had more time with him to ask him about his life.

10. What is your super power of choice?
Telekinetic control.

11. What three traits define you?
Positivity, strength and forgiveness.

12. Do you have a claim to fame?
Yes. I met Chris Akabusi, the most energetic man I have ever met! He really is happy all the time!

13. What would you do (for a career) if you weren't doing this?
Counselling.

14. What would you most like to tell yourself at age 13?
Don't always take the easiest and most comfortable route.

15. What is your favourite thing about working at Durham House?
Working with brilliant and caring minds all focused on patient care. Also the ability to refer to a multitude of different disciplines all under the same roof.